Two Necessities to the Front.

Sentiment don't sell clothes. It's price and quality. THE LEAST of the FORMER for the MOST of the LATTER and things boom. It's no wonder we're doing the biggest trade in CLOTHING and FURNISHING GOODS. It's a characteristic of humanity to appreciate fine things, and where they are "surprise" you'll find the people.

The latest Fashion Plates the suits with bound and stitched edges, plain or silk facings. You read of these 'things'—naturally you look for them when you "set out" to buy a suit. You'll FIND 'EM HERE—all of them, in chevots, plain black and light shades, tweeds, cassimeres and worsteds, cut in the scale of lengths that are proper. Plain weaves and wide wales. The linings and trimmings are as carefully selected and put in place as the outside finishings. We're not ashamed to have you look our suits through and through. We're conscious they're all right.

Straight as a thread through the eye of a needle we have entered into every phase of Suit Fashion. When you make a change with US this Spring it will be for the better. We have "shaved" the price until only a tissue of profits covers the cost. Our line of cheapness has been drawn at $10.00 worth weighs light below that price. Up to $35.00 quality grows with every dollar. THERE is the highest perfection. Judge us as you find us. The necks and three and four button cutaway frocks, made up in "wood brown," chevots, black tibets, fancy cassimeres, clay's worsteds, elrick, tweeds, english homespuns, &c. Give us a variety that no three houses can combine and equal. Don't fear of the fit that is perfect beyond improvement. Our aim has been to give you the biggest money's worth you have ever had—and we have succeeded. Success piles upon success.

The Republican.

L. W. GRANT, Publisher.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1892.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President,
GROVER CLEVELAND.

For Vice-President,
A. E. STEVENSON.

For Congress:
GASTON A. ROBBINS.

CAMPAIGN RATE.

For twenty-five cents, strictly in advance, the REPUBLICAN will be sent to any address from now until the 1st of January 1893. This period will cover the Presidential Campaign, the meeting of the State Legislature and the gubernatorial contest before that body. It will cover the most interesting period of the State for years. Can any man in Calhoun afford to be without the paper at this price? Remember no name will be booked at this low rate without the cash.

There can be no relief for the people of the South outside the success of the Democratic party.

Congressmen Cobb and Bankhead have been renominated in their districts, and will be elected.

The appointments for speaking by Hon. Gaston A. Robbins, which appear in this issue are for his first appointment. Later in the canvass he will make other appointments and speak in other places in the country.

The Republicans are plotting to elect the Congressman from this District. If the white people divide to any great extent they may do it. What are you Southern born white men going to do about it?

The State Democratic Executive Committee at its last meeting, appointed a state campaign committee and placed at its head that true and tried Democrat, Hon. C. M. Shelly, of Birmingham. The rank and file will have courage to fight under such leadership.

Hon. Gaston A. Robbins, nominee of the Democratic party for Congress, in this District, was in Jacksonville Thursday, on matters connected with his campaign. He is very sanguine of election. If the Democracy of the district is true to itself, he will be our next Congressman.

At the last meeting of the Democratic Congressional Executive committee of this District, Dr. T. W. Ayers, of this place, was elected chairman of the committee, with authority to select a secretary. He has chosen for that position Mr. J. J. Arnold, also of this place, an active and working young Democrat.

The Democrats of Georgia are proving by the Confederate records that three of the prominent leaders of the People's party in that State were deserters from the Confederate army. It is no wonder these men are so ready to desert the Democratic party, which is the shield and safeguard of the Southern people, as was the Confederate army.

If the Third party platform should be enacted into law, it would involve the issue of billions of dollars of bonds, the interest on which would have to be paid by the sweat and toil of the millions of working people for the next hundred years, and raise up a class of rich bond-holders whose children would live off the toil of the masses for many generations. And yet this Third party professes to be opposed to plutocracy.

The Third party platform provides for the purchase of the telegraph lines by the Government at great expense to the people. Now the railroads, the daily press and the commercial classes mainly employ the telegraph and are willing to pay existing rates. A farmer does not send a message a year. What justice is there in taxing the farmers to buy the telegraph lines in order that rates may be cheapened to the gamblers in cotton and grain, the daily press and the railroads?

So long as the pension steal draws thirty-six millions of dollars from the South annually and the tariff robbery drains twice as much more, the South will be poor, and no amount of inflation of the currency will restore the equilibrium. Inflation will only make millionaires instead of millionaires and the scheme would finally wind up by retiring vast sums of the currency into bonds, of which the rich would get the benefit, and the poor would be left in more hopeless slavery than ever.

Commissioners Court has been in session this week reviewing the tax list was patiently hearing reasons from the tax payers why their valuations should not be increased. The members of the court are just and fair men, and will not knowingly put an extra burden on any man. If the Court makes any mistake in this direction it will not be one of intention. The public are too ready to censure public officers for faithful discharge of public duty, especially where it touches the pecuniary interests of the aforesaid public. The Commissioners did not make the tax laws. Their duty only is to execute them in so far as their office is con-

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

Hon. Gaston A. Robbins, the Democratic nominee for Congress in the Fourth district, and Dr. B. D. Williams, the Democratic elector for the Fourth district, will address the people of Calhoun county on the political issues of the day at the following places on the dates mentioned:

Four Mile, beat 3, Sept. 20; 10 a. m. Jacksonville, beat 1, Sept. 20; 8 p. m. Asbury Church, beat 5, Sept. 21; 10 p. m. White Plains, beat 11, Sept. 22; 10 a. m. Choccolocco, beat 12, Sept. 23; 10 a. m. Oxford, beat 13, Sept. 24; 10 a. m.

T. W. AYERS, Chairman,
JOS. J. ARNOLD, Secretary,
Democratic Executive Committee 4th District.

The man who says he won't vote for Cleveland just because the Jones crowd are going to vote for him makes an admission that he is not worthy to be entrusted with the sacred privilege of casting a ballot. Each man is morally bound to vote for the best interest of his country, irrespective of what others may do, and any one who admits this his vote is determined by his prejudices and his own unfitness as an elector.

In the State of Arkansas, the People's Party made a great clamor and pretended to have great strength. In that State the People's party and the Republicans fused, and yet the Democrats carried the State by a large majority.

We commend this fact to the prayerful consideration of the People's party crowd in Alabama, who are now claiming that they have the world by the tail.

Corbett whipped Sullivan, the world's champion, in the fight at New Orleans, the 7th inst.

Harrison's Letter.

President Harrison's letter accepting the Republican nomination for the Presidency is the longest document of its kind made public in many years, and for the most part it is a dry and lifeless plea for the mercy of the American people.

By far the most notable passage is that referring to the recent Alabama State election, which he uses as an argument in favor of the Force bill. "Our old Republican battle cry, 'a free ballot and a fair count,' comes back to us, not only from Alabama, but from other states," says this champion of Federal bayonets at the polls. And we are right glad that he thus delivers himself. He makes the Force bill and High tariff the supreme issues of his party, and Democrats everywhere will agree with him that these are the great purposes of the party which is seeking to destroy the freedom of the free.

If Democrats ever doubted that Cleveland's defeat would bring back the state of affairs when federal bayonets sustained thieves and knaves in their ruinous rule of the South, they can no longer doubt. Mr. Harrison's word is added to the infamous pledge of his party. With him and his party it is a fight to the death. They would forever deprive the South of honest voice in the councils of the nation.

With the State election in Alabama Mr. Harrison has got nothing to do. He simply uses the wild talk of defeated place-seekers to turn a cheap political trick. Alabama means to control her own affairs.—Birmingham Age-Herald.

The Plot Thickens.

The Age-Herald this morning prints Chairman Bowman's call for a meeting of the Jeffersonian Democratic State Executive Committee to be held in Birmingham September 14.

On the same day one or both of the Republican State Executive Committees will meet in this city.

And on the same day the Committee of the Third party will meet here.

All of these committees come together at the time of the arrival of delegates to the Third party convention of the State.

The plot seems to thicken, doesn't it?

There is a story out that Chris Magee, who is coming to pay us another visit about the 14th, submitted to the Third party bosses two propositions.

One was that the Republicans should name four candidates for electors and the Third party people seven candidates; the consideration being that the Republican vote would be cast for the fusion ticket. The proposition is said to have met with a discouraging reception, whereupon the astute Magee submitted:

That, the Third party name all the eleven electors, and the Republican vote would be cast for them; provided, that, if the emergency arose, rather than see the election of President thrown into the House of Representatives, the Alabama Third party, or Weaver, electors would vote for Harrison in the electoral college.

We cannot vouch for the truthfulness of these things, we are perfectly free to say, but they appear to bear a very reasonable resemblance to fact.

As a matter of course, everybody knows the Third party within itself amounts to nothing in Alabama. There is probably not a beat in any county of the State that it can control, but, combined with the Republican party and unfaithful democrats, it might be able to carry a few counties. As for carrying the State, non-

SOUTHERN REPUBLICANISM.

Its Utter Lack of Principle Abetted by the National Committee.

New York Times.

It is many years since the Republican organization in the South has stood for any principle or attempted to serve any beneficial purpose among the people of that section. It has been in the hands of a few politicians in each State whose main inspiration has been a desire to divide among them the Federal offices and patronage, and, in return, they have used it chiefly to control delegates to the National Convention in the interest of some one from whom they have expected to receive favors in the future. Under the present administration Federal appointments in the South have not been so made to build up the party in any legitimate sense of the term. That is, to say, there has been no effort to appoint men who would command confidence and win intelligent support for the party, and no effort to give strength and vitality to the organization as a means of promoting its policy. Patronage has been practically farmed out to certain leaders who were expected thereby to keep the organization in hand for the control of conventions and the making of delegates when the time came. It is a notorious fact that President Harrison made his renomination sure through this kind of control over an organization which served only to give effect to the desires of its managers. Without the Southern delegations, which represented no popular choice, but were in effect chosen by Federal office holders and largely made up of them, the President could not have secured his renomination.

And now this Southern Republican organization is used in the most unprincipled fashion under the direction of the National Committee. There is no expectation of securing the electoral vote of any one of these States by the fair means of building up a direct support of the national candidates so as to gain for them a plurality of the popular vote. If in the division of the Democrats between the regular party organization and the People's Party, which has grown out of the Farmers' Alliance movement, the Republicans could, by sticking to their principles and upholding the policy of their party, win a State here and there, it would be to their credit. At least they would not be subject to criticism for taking advantage of the situation and trying to accomplish something for the national cause. But nowhere are they working on that plan, but they are making bargains with the People's Party whereby they hope to strengthen it and help it to defeat the Democrat electoral ticket in some States, and in others to trade support of its State ticket for votes for the Republican national ticket.

In operations of this kind all principle is lost sight of. These tricks, it is to be remembered, are played in the interest of the National organization, and are instigated and supported in the North. The Third Party of the South is for the Omaha platform, with all its wild demands, the Sub-Treasury scheme, the free coinage of silver at the present rate, Government ownership of railroads, and all the rest; and it is against the Force bill and the tariff policy of the Republican party. In fact, the Republican party professes to be opposed to everything that the People's party represents, and to regard its policy as dangerous. And yet it is encouraging all manner of unscrupulous combinations with it in the South, thereby effecting its own principles and policy in the hope that it may manage somewhere if only in a single State, to wrest the electoral vote from the Democrats. Such bargains and alliances attest an utter lack of principle and of scruple in party methods, and they could not be employed where members of the party were supposed to be attached to it from conviction and out of regard for its professed policy. That they are resorted to is further evidence that the Republicanism of the South is without the vitality of political faith of any kind, and is a mere instrument in the hands of politicians to effect their objects.

There is every reason to believe that all these schemes and bargains for giving support to the People's party and getting support from it for the chance of possibly grasping the electoral vote of some State supposed to be doubtful for the Republican candidates or keeping it from the Democratic candidates will miscarry. The Farmers' Alliance in the South, made up chiefly of Democrats, and they know full well that the only practical effect of such plots must be to endanger Democratic success in the nation. They know that the success of the plotters would mean the continuance of McKinleyism, a revival of the Force bill, and a menace to the peace and prosperity of the South, and they will not permit them to succeed by giving support to any Republican-Third-Party conspiracies. But after these schemes have proved futile, in what condition will the Republican party of the South be left? It will be more than ever demoralized, and will become a parasite member of the National organization, without utility or utility, a burden and a hindrance.

Election in Arkansas.

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 5.—The state election came off here today. The vote was light and the chances are all in favor of the regular democratic state ticket by a majority over the fusion of the third party and republicans. The Australian ballot law prevented many negroes voting, as they could not make out the ballot in five minutes.

Magee Coming Back.

The Age-Herald two or three days ago informed the people of Alabama that Chris Magee, Harrison's personal representative in Pennsylvania, was amongst us, and that he had probably come at the President's suggestion.

It is significant that Mr. Magee, while in Selma, held a conference with the leaders of the anti-Moseley wing of the Alabama Republicans. The object of that conference could have been nothing less than to make peace between the factions, and we believe that the wily Pennsylvania succeeded in his object. The Moseleys and the anti-Moseleys may make a show of war hereafter, but it will be a mere blind, intended to confuse the Democracy. Democrats will not be deceived.

Mr. Magee was in Birmingham yesterday and met the local Republican leaders, nearly all of whom are anti-Moseley, and we have grounds for stating that the conference was pleasant. Mr. Magee called on Mr. Peyton (J. Bowman), but he and Mr. Bowman are personal friends, and that may possibly account for the visit.

Mr. Magee is coming back to Alabama. He will be in Birmingham between now and September 15. In point of fact, his return will conform as to time with the Third party's state convention. This is not accident; it is design. Mr. Magee is coming here to consult with and advise the men who will be masters of the convention, whether they be straight-out Republicans, straight-out Third party men, or more-headed place-seekers claiming to be Democrats. Doubtless the whole scheme is already planned and when the self-elected delegates come here ten days hence they will find their work already agreed upon, and they will simply register the will of Mr. Magee, Mr. Manning and Mr. Gaither, and their allies of more or less importance.

Mr. Magee's visits mean mischief, as we pointed out the other day. He has taken it upon himself, at the suggestion of his master, the President, to furnish the skill and brains, and be paymaster of the money, to carry Alabama against Cleveland, and to defeat the Democratic nominees for Congress. He is one of the shrewdest and most unscrupulous politicians of his time. He is a man of consummate skill in political rascality. His object is one that will result in failure; but his appearance upon the scene lends new interest to our state politics. It will also cause renewed zeal on the part of the Democracy.—Birmingham Age-Herald.

The Situation As It Is.

The Republican District Convention which met in this city on Thursday last was a marvel of harmony and good order as compared with all previous conventions held by the G. O. P. in this state.

The convention gave its nomination by a practically unanimous vote to a man who had not sought the position. Judge Craig, the nominee of the convention is the ablest and strongest of all the Republicans in the district. He is a typical Republican. He is a Republican warp and filling. He is the embodiment of Republican principles and ideas. He believes with the Republican party in the centralization of government. He agrees with Mr. McKinley that a high protective tariff is the corner stone of the Federation. He thinks with Mr. Sherman, that gold is and ought to be the money standard of the world. Mr. Lodge's Force bill would, we doubt not, receive his support, because he is a partisan Republican, though he might personally oppose the bill.

With such a candidate the Republicans in this district would give the Democracy a hard fight under the most favorable party condition.

We have no means of knowing what the men who have heretofore affiliated with the Democratic party but who within the past year have drifted away from the Democracy are going to do at their convention in Birmingham on the 15th. If they nominate a candidate for congress and are able to control anything like the number of votes that they claim, then Judge Craig's election is almost a certainty and the Fourth District, which has a majority of 2,500 white men will be represented in congress by a Republican nominated exclusively by negroes and elected almost entirely by them.

If the convention at Birmingham shall endorse Judge Craig's nomination, then we will indeed have an anomalous condition of affairs, that of southern farmers complaining of the scarcity of money, the burdens of tariff and the villainies of corporations endorsing the candidate of the party which has for its fundamental principles the building up and perpetration of gigantic corporations, the levying of high tariff taxes, the maintenance of the one metal standard of values.—Selma Journal.

The Moseley wing of the Republican party did not participate with the Stevens faction, but held a meeting in Calera, instead of Selma. They elected J. D. Hardy, chairman, and adjourned. Col. Isaac Frank, of Jacksonville, passed through the city on the way home yesterday, and while he claims to belong to the Moseley wing says he is heartily in favor of Judge Craig, whom the Stevens crowd nominated for congress, and feels sure he will be elected.—Hot Blast.

"I don't give rebels in the south vouchers. I would rather furnish rope to hang every d—n one of them."—General James B. Weaver, Peoples party candidate for president.

EXCURSION RATES TO THE G. A. R.

The annual meeting of the Naval Veterans of the United States will be held at Baltimore September 15th to 19th, and the Annual National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic will take place at Washington September 19th to 24th.

Round trip tickets at extraordinarily low rate will be on sale by the East Tennessee, Virginia & Georgia Railroad for both of these occasions, September 18th to 20th, inclusive, limited to October 10th 1892, for return. Holders of these excursion tickets will be privileged to stop over in either direction at all principal points East of Bristol, where tickets for side-trip excursions can be procured to the prominent battle fields of Virginia. In addition to the ticket to Washington, which provides for a trip going and returning via the same route, there will be on sale at a very little more expense a ticket going via Roanoke and Shenandoah Junction and returning via boat, Norfolk and Richmond.

The E. T. & V. G. is without question the most desirable line from the Southeast and west to the points above named. The route is through the far famed Shenandoah Valley, which was the scene of many famous battles.

Any Ticket Agent of the E. T. & V. G. will be glad to give full information as to rates, schedules &c., or parties can address B. W. Wrenn, G. P. & A. A., Knoxville, Tenn.

N. Y. has escaped cholera three days, after the landing of the Moravia with its cholera-infected steerage; and already there is a clamor that there has been over-vigilance and too much "scare." "The stock market, produce exchange and banks have been demoralized, put to trouble, made anxious," whimper the fellows who would be howling like the devil if the very vigilance they complain of had been neglected. Queer world this!—Chattanooga Times.

The nominees of the National Democratic party were nominated fairly. No fraud or trickery has ever been charged up to its convention. The principles of the party, as enunciated in its platform, are the same that have characterized it since its foundation. Then no man, no matter how much aggrieved he may be over the result in State politics, can refuse to support the national ticket and still lay any claims to being a Democrat.—Coosa Advocate.

Mr. Jarratt, the new president of State Normal school, made a favorable impression both on pupils and visiting patrons yesterday, and his management since has set at rest many foolish rumors as to what that management would be. There has been no dissension of text books heretofore, no setting back of classes, no anything that was predicted by evil spirits. The president announced today that he would endeavor to the ministers of the various churches to attend in turn each morning and open the school with prayer.

A large number of letters have been received by various parties in Jacksonville making enquiries as to the school and the indications are to a larger attendance on the Normal School from points at distance than any previous session of the school since its establishment in the State. Several families of moving here for the education of their children. We do not state to predict a larger attendance than the first of next month than any previous session in the history of the school. Annually the school sends out many accomplished well equipped teachers, who are good words for the school and its merits abroad.

Keeps Marriage Licenses for sale.

Courts the 1st and 3rd Wednesdays in each month.

Two Necessities to the Front.

Sentiment don't sell clothes. It's price and quality. The LEAST of the FORMER for the MOST of the LATTER and things boom. It's no wonder we're doing the biggest trade in CLOTHING and FURNISHING GOODS. It's a characteristic of humanity to appreciate fine things, and where they are "surprise" you'll find the people.

The latest Fashion Plates the suits with bound and stitched edges, plain or silk facings. You read of these things—naturally you look for them when you "set out" to buy a suit. You'll FIND 'EM HERE—all of them, in chevots, plain black and light shades, tweeds, cassimers and worsteds, cut in the scale of lengths that are proper. Plain weaves and wide wales. The linings and trimmings are as carefully selected and put in place as the outside finishings. We're not ashamed to have you look our suits through and through. We're conscious they're all right.

Straight as a thread through the eye of a needle we have entered into every phase of Suit Fashion. When you make a change with US this Spring it will be for the better. We have "shaved" the price until only a tissue of profits covers the cost. Our line of cheapness has been drawn at $10.00 worth weighs light below that price. Up to $35.00 quality grows with every dollar. THERE is the highest perfection. Judge us as you find us. The sacks and three and four button cutaway frocks, made up in "wood brown," chevots, black thibets, fancy cassimers, clay's worsteds, etrick, tweeds, english homespuns, &c. Give us a variety that no three houses can combine and equal. Don't fear of the fit that is perfect beyond improvement. Our aim has been to give you the biggest money's worth you have ever had—and we have succeeded. Success piles upon success.

Has to Say of Baker's Blood and Liver Cure.

TESTIMONIAL.

My brother, B. F. Savage, of Leaden, Ala., has been afflicted with scrofula, of the worst form, for many years. The disease broke out in great boils, all over his body, inside and outside, and he was unable to do any work. He was treated by all the doctors of his section, but could not get any relief. He was then treated by Dr. W. F. Westmoreland, of Alabama, who gave him a bottle of Baker's Blood and Liver Cure. He took it for three weeks, and the boils disappeared. He was then given another bottle, and the disease was completely cured. He is now a healthy man, and can do any work. He is a great testimonial for Baker's Blood and Liver Cure. He is a great testimonial for Baker's Blood and Liver Cure. He is a great testimonial for Baker's Blood and Liver Cure.

PARTIES DOUBTING THE ABOVE STATEMENTS
will be convinced by writing to Mr. Savage. He will cheerfully answer your letter. Baker's Blood and Liver Cure has never been known to fail to cure scrofula, syphilis, rheumatism, or any other blood disease. It is a great remedy for all blood diseases. MR. HARRISON'S LETTER GIVEN OUT TO THE COUNTRY.

A General Review of Governmental Affairs and His Position on the Various Political Issues.

General Harrison has accepted the presidential nomination of the republican party in the following letter:

The letter is addressed to "Hon. William McKinley, Jr., and others," and begins:

I now avail myself of the first period of relief from public duties to respond to the notification which you brought me on June 20th, of my nomination for the office of president of the United States by the republican national convention recently held at Minneapolis to accept the nomination, and am grateful for the approval expressed by the convention.

He reviews the work of the administration which he claims has been "distinctly and progressively American and republican." He talks of the "great work of the fifty-first congress," and speaks of the party's war record.

The letter speaks of the existence of state banks before the war and the varying views of their notes of issues. He says:

The democratic party, it is true, has been taken in the monetary question. The bank of the United States, it is true, has been taken in the monetary question. The bank of the United States, it is true, has been taken in the monetary question.

He then takes up reciprocity and says:

Another related measure, as furnishing increased ocean traffic for our ships, and of great importance to our commerce, is the reciprocity policy declared by section 7 of the tariff act of 1890, and now a practical operation with several of our nations.

The letter speaks of the removal of duty upon sugar, and the continuance of coffee and tea upon the free list, while giving great relief to our people by cheapening the cost of living.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Arkansas' Full Vote and the Democratic Win-From Vermont.

PORT SMITH, Sept. 8.—Western Arkansas polled a full vote in Monday's election. Fishback, Democratic candidate for governor, leads the ticket in all this part of the state. His majority will be fully 25,000. In this city his majority exceeds 700, which is nearly 200 ahead of the party ticket.

No People's Party in It. LINCOLN, Ark., Sept. 8.—From the returns already received of the election, it is probable that the Democratic state ticket is successful by from 18,000 to 25,000 plurality. The legislature is Democratic by a large majority. The People's party ticket polled a surprisingly light vote. It did not carry six counties in the state.

HONOR TO HENDRICKS. His Birthday Was Celebrated in Indianapolis—Cleveland Writes a Letter.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 10.—The Democrats of Ind. an address to the memory of Vice President Hendricks, the occasion being his birthday. In a meeting at Tomlinson hall, addressed by Adlai E. Stevenson and others, Hendricks' reception was an ovation. He delivered a somewhat extended eulogy upon the dead statesman, and only incidentally touched on politics.

The following letter from Mr. Cleveland was read:

GRAY HAWKS, DUNDAS' Bay, Sept. 5. The Alex. J. Hendricks received the invitation you sent me in behalf of the Hendricks club of Indianapolis to be present at the celebration of the birthday of Thomas A. Hendricks on the 7th inst. It would afford me great pleasure to accept your invitation and to join with you in the celebration of the birthday of the man whose public services of the nation have made it impossible for me to be present.

Your organization does a fitting thing when it thus recalls to his fellow citizens the memory of the man whose public services of the nation have made it impossible for me to be present.

Not only the city of Indianapolis, but the state of Indiana is lighted with the memory of this lamented statesman. Assuring you and your organization that I will be very glad to contribute to the celebration of his birthday, I am, yours very truly, GROVER CLEVELAND.

SULLIVAN DEFEATED. James J. Corbett, of San Francisco, Is Now the Champion.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 8.—The great fight for the championship of the world and a small fortune in a purse is over. John L. Sullivan, who for ten years has worn the belt, and gloried in it, has been defeated by James J. Corbett, of San Francisco, in a ten-round fight.

THE QUARANTINE.

STRICT REGULATIONS ADOPTED TO KEEP CHOLERA OUT.

Two Dead, and Eleven Cases Reported on the Scandia, Which Has Just Arrived.

QUARANTINE, Sept. 12.—Cold facts, not words, suffice to tell that the cholera plague, baffled in its attempt to gain a foothold on our shores has knocked at the quarantine gate again with a vigor, increased a hundred fold over any previous effort.

Up to midnight the summary of the record of the scourge on the Moravia, Normannia, Russia and Wyoming, while at sea and since arriving in port, approximately, was as follows:

Total deaths at sea 31, total deaths in port 19, sick in port 43, total number of cases 93.

This does not include those isolated at suspects under Dr. Byron's charge or Swinburne Island.

The steamboat, Honington has gone to the lower bay to take the passengers from the Normannia.

Dr. Jenkins said this morning that the statement that he had refused assistance from the marine hospital or any other source in relieving the passengers on the infected ships in the lower bay was untrue. He was willing to receive assistance from any one, and he thought it likely in case the marine hospital service did not voluntarily tender assistance that he would be compelled to officially call upon them for aid.

The ill-fated Scandia, also of the Hamburg-American line, was off Fire Island at five o'clock, and soon after dark came to anchor in the lower quarantine grounds. No report was expected till this morning, because of Dr. Jenkins' statement at the evening talk, that he expected to hear nothing till this morning.

When, therefore, at one o'clock this morning Dr. Byron reported the fact that he was advised that there were thirty-two deaths in a total of 1,086 souls on board and that he was going to send a ship from Swinburne Island to bring off seven additional cases, there was intense excitement at the health officer's home when Dr. Jenkins gave out the facts as received. This made a grand total of the five ships under surveillance as follows:

Deaths at sea, 63; deaths in port, 20; sick in port, 39; grand total, 122.

The mother of the Persian children who died on the Wyoming died at the Swinburne hospital during the evening.

Latest from the Scandia. QUARANTINE, Sept. 12.—Dr. Byron telegraphed from Swinburne Island to Dr. Jenkins the following advice:

"Am back with two dead and eleven cases from the Scandia. Told the captain not to move from town quarantine."

The crew of the William Fletcher has refused to transfer passengers of the Normannia and Russia and have deserted.

New Arrivals Reported Everybody Well. NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Arrived: Steamer Mannheim from New Caledonia; steamer Sonnerholm from Hamburg; steamer Kaiser and William II. from Bremen; off Fire Island, signals: "All well on board."

None in New York. NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—The official bulletin of the health board, posted at 10 o'clock a. m. read as follows:

"No cases of cholera have been discovered in this city."

VACCINATION FOR CHOLERA. Pasteur Says the Project Is Feasible. Several Have Taken It.

LONDON, Sept. 10.—The Times' Paris correspondent has had an interview with M. Pasteur in which the latter says his experiments with anti-cholera vaccine have never failed with animals, but he had been unable to apply the test to human beings without introducing virus into the bowels as he did dogs. He had vaccinated persons living in contaminated centers, and none of them had taken cholera, and to further his work he had applied to the King of Siam to be allowed to experiment in that country, where cholera is epidemic. A similar application to the Russian Government had been unsuccessful.

The British Medical Journal says that a young English physician vaccinated himself to inoculation with cholera virus. The process, it is said, was easy, and the inconvenience scarcely greater than vaccination, and it is claimed that complete protection was insured against the disease. A few days later the physician underwent a second inoculation, which was followed by no symptoms whatever. The experiment seems to have established the immunity of inoculated persons from cholera. At least the physician in question appears to have enjoyed immunity since the inoculation, although he exposed himself to danger. Seven physicians in all have been inoculated as volunteers in the cause of humanity.

A Missouri Mayor Elopes. CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—A warrant was sworn out here for the arrest of John H. Heister, mayor of Brunswick, Mo., who is now residing in the city. It is charged that Heister a few days ago eloped from Brunswick with Kitty Ashby, a pretty clerk in a millinery store at that place. Friends of the girl followed the couple to Chicago, and saw them entering a house on West Madison street and at once took out warrants for Heister's arrest. Heister has a wife and two children in Brunswick.

Daniel Boone's Neighbor. NEVADA, Mo., Sept. 10.—The sixth annual reunion of the old settlers of Vermont county was held at Sulphur Wells, near the city. Jonathan Bryan, aged 92, was the oldest man present. He was born in Bryan's Fort, near Lexington, Ky., and was raised in St. Charles county, living for years on an adjoining farm to Daniel Boone. He helped erect the first flouring mill built in St. Louis.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President,
GROVER CLEVELAND.

For Vice-President,
A. E. STEVENSON.

For Congress:
GASTON A. ROBBINS.

CAMPAIGN RATE.

For twenty-five cents, strictly in advance, the REPUBLICAN will be sent to any address from now until the 1st of January 1893. This period will cover the Presidential Campaign; the meeting of the State Legislature and the gubernatorial contest before that body. It will cover the most interesting period of the State for years. Can any man in Calhoun afford to be without the paper at this price? Remember no name will be looked at this low rate without the cash.

Why is it that the Third party papers and orators are full of abuse of Cleveland and the Democratic party, and have nothing to say against Harrison and the Republican party? Calhoun county Democrats would do well to think of this.

The majority of the regular Democratic candidate for Governor in Arkansas was sixty thousand over Canahan, the People's party candidate, and about twenty thousand over the People's party and Republican candidates combined. This shows the weakness of the new party.

The Weaverites claim to be the pure party. Their leader in Mississippi, Frank Barlett, has been convicted of writing a letter to a negro school teacher, advising him to report one teacher more than he had in his school, and promising that he (Barlett) would get the additional salary, if he (the negro) would divide the steal from the school fund. Very pure party.

Some of the people of this county who are going to support Weaver and his third party platform deny that the platform demands that federal soldiers be paid the difference between gold and greenbacks at the time they received their pay. This they say was only a resolution of the convention which nominated Weaver—a distinction without a difference. But be this as it may, Weaver, when in Congress introduced more than one bill to pay federal soldiers this difference, and he is in favor of it. The Southern farmers are already giving federal pensioners every year more than ten per cent of their gross money crop. The federal soldiers have already received this difference many times over in the pensions they have been steadily drawing since the war. An Ohio man and a Republican, living in Jacksonville, says that in Ohio every three months, when the pensioners are paid off, money is as plentiful as if a crop had just been harvested. Here we have only one money season a year and the farmers of the South are steadily growing poorer under the pension drain and the tariff robbery. How can Southern men vote to not only perpetuate the pension steal, which is impoverishing them, but to increase it by support of such men as Weaver.

Rev. D. P. Williams made a speech at the Mass meeting of the opponents of the regular Democratic party, last Saturday, in which he indulged in some pretty tall assertions. For instance he said it took twenty billions of dollars to move the crops of the country. The cotton crop of the South brings about three hundred millions. If the statement of Mr. Williams be true, then the South raises a comparatively insignificant part of the marketable crops of the United States. If his statement be true, then while it takes only three hundred millions to buy the cotton crop of the South, it takes nineteen thousand, seven hundred million dollars to move the crops of the Eastern and Western States. Everybody knows there is no such great disparity in the productions of the three sections of the Union.

In another portion of his speech he said farm values had decreased an enormous per cent. in Alabama since 1874, and proceeded to tell the farmers how poor they are getting. Since his speech we have taken the trouble to look up the valuations of property in this State in the years 1874 and 1880, as shown by the Auditor's reports of those years. In 1874 the valuation of the farm lands of Alabama, as given in for taxes, was $70,111,185. In 1880 the tax valuation of farm lands was $88,029,447. So far from decreasing in value, as he asserted, we see that farm lands in Alabama have really increased in value to the extent of seventeen million, seven hundred and eighteen thousand, two hundred and sixty-two dollars.

It is such misleading statements as these that are dissatisfying the people who own farms. It would be safe for them not to believe all every third party orator tells them. We don't think Mr. Williams would intentionally misstate facts, but he evidently, in this case, did not go to the official record for his figures, but took them second-hand from some newspaper engaged in the work of dissatisfying the democratic masses and promoting thereby the chances of Harrison for the Presidency.

Third Party Meeting.

We were promised the proceedings of the Jeffersonian Democratic and Third party meeting at this place last Saturday, by Mr. Frank Leslie, the Secretary, but up to this writing they have not been received. Not more than a hundred people were present. N. J. Stephens was made chairman. Resolutions were adopted of grandiloquent tone and denunciatory throughout of the so-called frauds at the State election. Wild claims were made as to the white majority by which Kolb carried the State, of which, by the way there is no proof. The following named gentlemen were sent to the Birmingham convention as delegates: Ira P. Webb, A. J. Farmer, L. F. Greer, R. L. Allen, W. M. Webster, T. L. Harvey, N. J. Stephens, A. T. Hanna, J. M. K. Guinn and Ed. Leslie.

At the Weaver mass meeting here Mr. Ed. Leslie stated that all the witnesses of Weaver's rascality at Pulaski, Tenn., were dead but one, Mr. J. T. Abernathy, clerk of the county court at Pulaski, gives the names of a large number of living witnesses and their postoffices. The crowd cheered Mr. Leslie's announcement that all these wronged Confederates but one were dead and would no doubt have gone wild to hear that he too had passed in his checks. If some of these men who have contracted such affection for the man who robbed Confederates during the war and wants to rob further their children now for the benefit of yankee soldiers who desolated the South, will write to some of the parties named by Mr. Abernathy they will learn the truth about Weaver. But they won't do it. They prefer to believe a lie and be damned.

Birmingham Convention.

As we go to press (Friday) the Third-Party-Kolb Democratic Convention at Birmingham had made no Congressional nominations. The indications are that the convention will put out a Weaver electoral ticket and nominate candidates in all the districts. White Republicans were quite prominent in the convention; but the negro wing of the Republican party refuses to fuse with the Alliance.

The Birmingham Age-Herald is authority for the statement, that the opponents of Democracy, now in session at Birmingham, have made a deal with the Republicans, whereby the Mosely Republicans are to take five electors and the Kolbits six, the Mosely Republicans dictating who the six Kolbit electors shall be. This means the eleven electoral votes of Alabama for Harrison. The deal was closed Wednesday night.

NEW RAILROAD SYSTEM.

Praise of Gen. Burke.

The Chattanooga News discussing the proposed new railroad system, to be known as the Tennessee, Georgia and Alabama railroads, and the connection of the Chattanooga Southern therewith, has the following to say of Gen. Burke, receiver of that road:

"The Chattanooga Southern railroad will be a good model for other railroads in the system. It is due to Gen. Joseph W. Burke, the able receiver, that the road has reached that proud position. Yesterday afternoon Gen. Burke presented Pat Walsh, one of the section foremen, with a new hat for having his section without a sprig of grass and without a rough place on it."

The roadbed from Chattanooga to Gadsden is in the best condition it has ever been in. The freight shipments are more than can be handled on account of the lack of cars. As an instance it may be cited that seven car loads of cars will be furnished to morrow. It has been impossible to get them earlier.

The shipments of iron ore, coal and lumber are immense, while three-fourths of all the cord wood burned in Chattanooga comes from down the Chattanooga Southern.

The splendid management of Receiver Burke is shown from the fact that the July earnings were double those of last January, the month before he was appointed to the receivership.

The passenger receipts for last Sunday alone were over $300 some 600 passengers having been hauled.

Gen. Burke in his position as receiver has certainly made a magnificent record of which any railroad manager in America might be proud.

WEAVER AT PULASKI, TENN.

The Story of His Robbery and Oppression of the People.

To the Editor of the Morganton Herald. Having seen in some paper an account of General Weaver's conduct while in charge at Pulaski, Tenn., I wrote to the clerk of the county court for either a verification or denial of the charges. I received the letter which I send you.

Very respectfully,
W. E. ABERNATHY.
Rutherford College, N. C., August 15.

PULASKI, Tenn., August 19, 1891. Mr. Will E. Abernathy, Rutherford College, North Carolina: Dear Sir—Your letter of inquiry in regard to the acts of General Weaver while in command of this place was handed me to answer. I was between fifteen and sixteen years old when Weaver was here, and I know whereof I write, and in support of what I shall write, I refer to a few citizens of this county: J. P. May, president People's National bank; Z. W. Ewing, ex-speaker of the senate; Flournoy Rivers, state senator; J. B. Stacey, ex-clerk and master of chancery court; Thos. E. McCoy, sheriff Giles county; Col. Solon E. Rose, Dr. William Battle, Dr. J. C. Roberts; S. W. Butler, judge of county court; R. H. Ragsdale, county trustee, and L. E. Abernathy, president Commercial Bank and Trust company. Most of these men were here and know the facts. The others know from reputation.

The said Weaver seemed to have a perfect hatred for the southern people. He pillaged, robbed, persecuted, vilified and abused our people in every imaginable way.

He had citizens arrested and imprisoned on trumped up charges, and made to pay to be released. He made the friends of D. K. Cox pay $500 for his release. Mr. Cox is dead, but his son, Ed R. Cox, is living here, and can testify to said facts. So can Major J. B. Stacey and Colonel S. E. Rose, friends of Mr. Cox, who paid part of the money. He robbed Mr. Jasper Cox (no relation of Mr. D. K. Cox) of $2,000 worth of spun thread. Mr. Jasper Cox is a reliable citizen of this county, and now lives near Bodenham, Giles county, Tenn.

He robbed John P. Williams, an old, reliable farmer and soldier of the Mexican war, of all his hogs and meat. Mr. Williams' postoffice is this place.

He had J. C. Roberts, of this place arrested, and tried to make him pay $500 for his release, but he found out that the doctor would not pay it, he turned him loose. The doctor is now living, and will answer any letter. On January 23, 1891, he made the following parties pay him sums opposite their names. I have the original receipt he gave my father, Charles C. Abernathy.

All the parties are dead except Dr. Wm. Battle, who will cheerfully bear me out: Thomas Martin, $250; Dr. Wm. Battle, $100; Charles C. Abernathy, $250; Robert Dickson, $250; J. H. Newbill, $100; J. M. Morris, $100; David Reynolds, $250; B. Abernathy, $100; Thomas B. Dally, $200. Total, $1,700.

He claims in his order that it was for the support of Union refugees coming within his lines. Thomas B. Dally and Wm. S. Newbill, son of J. H. Newbill, are living here and will answer any inquiry. I could give other incidents or acts of said Weaver, if necessary. Yours truly,
J. P. ABERNATHY.

Death of Gen. Lawler.

In the death of Gen. Levi W. Lawler Alabama loses a citizen who has served her with conspicuous ability, and unwavering fidelity, and his mourners will number all the intelligent people of the State.

General Lawler's greatest service was rendered as one of the three men entrusted with fending the debt of Alabama from the State had been rescued from carpet-bag misrule, the other members of the board being Governor Houston and Colonel Bethae. General Lawler brought to bear upon his duties common sense, and wide knowledge of finance, and in the happy adjustment of our burdensome debt the people quickly recognized his masterful skill.

For years he has been one of the State's railroad commissioners, and his death leaves a vacancy which Governor Jones will have to fill. Personally, General Lawler was one of the most lovable and admirable of men; being both gentle and manly in all the relations of life. Throughout Alabama his death will cause genuine sorrow.—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Cholera Preventive.

A Birmingham physician who passed through the cholera epidemic in that city in 1873, gives this advice as a preventive against the disease. But we have a safer preventive—cleanness, especially in cholera, is next to godliness. Use the bath tub every morning, rubbing perfectly dry afterwards. Put on fresh linen every day. Keep all closets and sinks saturated with a solution of copperas. Take five grains of quinine three times a day. Use five drops of aromatic sulphuric acid in a glass of water three times daily. Eat lightly of ordinary diet. Don't think of the epidemic.

If one practices these rules I believe he will have, if at all, only a mild case of cholera. Let us practice forbearance towards each other. Be conciliatory and kind towards each other. Don't occupy too much time in thinking of the epidemic.

A LESSON IN TARIFF.

What a Woman Learned Through a Small Transaction in Sugar.

"James," said the wife of a New York lawyer, "read this letter and tell me what it means. I don't understand it."

"The letter was from a Vermont sugar maker who had sent Mrs. James a tub of maple sugar on his order. The sugar had not satisfied Mrs. James, and she had written to inquire why it was so dry and granulated. 'It's not nearly so good to make syrup of,' she said in her letter, 'as that which you sent me in former years.' What's the reason of the change?"

To this the Vermont sugar maker replied: "We've had to make sugar dry this year in order to get the bounty." And it was because she was mystified by this assertion that Mrs. James called on her husband for an explanation.

"Pshaw!" answered the husband. "Don't you know what that means? The reference is to the bounty of 2 cents a pound which the Government pays to maple sugar makers."

"Do you mean to tell me, James," that the Government pays maple sugar makers 2 cents a pound for making the sugar that they sell at 10 cents a pound?"

"Why, yes; didn't you know that? That's one of the things provided for in the McKinley 'Tariff' Act."

"But why does the Government do it? Why should men get paid for making an article which they can sell at a good price? Why are maple sugar makers any better than anybody else that they should have presents of money from the Government for doing a thing that they would do anyway, a thing that they have been doing for years because it has paid?"

The husband smiled at his wife's earnestness. Then he went on to tell her how it happened that the maple sugar makers were getting gratuities out of the Government. "They are getting that bounty," he said, "because the Vermonters, who are the great maple sugar men of the country, had a 'pull' on the men who made up the McKinley bill. They made their representatives in Congress take the position that they were as much entitled to a bounty as were the growers of ordinary sugar. You see, it was proposed to offset the removal of the tariff protection of sugar growers with a bounty, which it was said would encourage sugar men to increase their outputs. As soon as the Vermonters heard of this project they made up their minds to make an effort to get a bounty, too."

"When their request was made the law-makers ridiculed it. 'The idea,' they said, 'of taxing the people of the country for the sake of making presents to those Vermont Grangers is perfectly absurd. It would be robbery, plain and simple, absolutely indefensible. The Government couldn't get a cent's worth of return from the gratuities.'"

"But the Vermonters hung on, and in the end got what they asked for. The amount distributed among them in the shape of bounty is small, but it is outrageous that a single penny of the people's money should be given them."

"Humph!" granted Mrs. James, "without making any reply to her husband's remarks, she resumed her breakfast. Presently she asked another question: 'Was the whole tariff law made up in the same way?'"

"Made up in what way," demanded the husband.

"Why, did other people get things just as the maple sugar men did, not because they were entitled to them, but because they had 'pulls'?"

"I reckon that's about the size of it."

"And that is what you call 'protection' is it?"

"I'm afraid so."

"Well, James, I'm against 'protection' from this time on. I don't think much of taxing all the country for the sake of getting money to distribute among a favored few."

CAMPAIGN RATE.

For twenty-five cents, strictly in advance, the REPUBLICAN will be sent to any address from now until the 1st of January 1893. This period will cover the Presidential Campaign; the meeting of the State Legislature and the gubernatorial contest before that body. It will cover the most interesting period of the State for years. Can any man in Calhoun afford to be without the paper at this price? Remember no name will be booked at this low rate without the cash.

You can learn something by hearing Morgan on the 28th.

The pure party is supporting the pure Weaver. Ye gods and little fishes!

Some scoundrel attempted the assassination of Gov. Flower, of New York, a few days ago.

Let the faithful Democrat possess his soul in patience. His reward will come in a glorious triumph of Cleveland and the Democratic nominees for Congress in November.

A great crowd of people will be at Schenck's Sulphur Springs to hear Gen. Morgan. Go that day and take a big basket of dinner with you. Let us make it a monster picnic.

Weaver and Field, in their letter of acceptance, do not commit themselves to the purchase of the railroads by the Government. The Bull of the woods of Beat 5 ought to look into this matter.

Poor old sub-treasury bill. The Birmingham convention ignored it, and now Weaver and Field in their letter of acceptance ignore it. It has served its day and time. It was a good trap to catch gudgeons.

Gen. Morgan's speech in Birmingham is described as being a magnificent effort. Let the young men of Calhoun go and hear this distinguished orator and statesman while they may. They may never have another opportunity.

The Bill Stevens wing of the Republican party rejected all overtures of fusion with the Third Party-Moseley Republican-Jeffersonian crowd at Birmingham and put out a straight Republican Harrison electoral ticket.

The Hot Blast's Western campaign fund don't seem to be growing very fast. Better let the rich Westerners take care of themselves, Bro. Smith, and direct your attention to raising a fund for the propagation of Democratic principles in Calhoun.

The Birmingham convention passed a resolution on motion of Manning, the Third party leader, denouncing Cleveland for sending a dispatch to Gov. Jones congratulating him on his election. It now transpires that Cleveland sent no such dispatch to Jones.

The regular Democracy of Alabama is going to clean the earth up with the candidates of the Birmingham convention of Republicans, Third Parties and Jeffersonians. Their nominations are weak and the bargain which brought them together is shocking to the moral sense of the people.

It is a precious thing to belong to a pure and undefiled party, headed by such truly good men as Kolb, Bowman, Longshore and Moseley. It is a wonder that such a truly good party can get its consent to dabble in such carnal things as elections and office hunting. It ought to take to itself wings and fly away and be at rest.

Some of the brethren who awhile back were very much in love with the goody-good party have weakened and can now afford to speak to a man who voted for Jones. Some of these are honest men who want to do right, and others are gentlemen with axes to grind. They want either to get or keep places and do not scorn the influence of the bad men who supported Jones and are now standing by the colors of the National Democracy.

Old Commodore Vanderbilt once said that his son-in-law, Shepherd, was more kinds of a d--d fool than any man he had ever met. It is needless to say that the old Commodore had not met Guinn, of the Oxford Voice, at the time he made this remark. Some time back the Mobile Register had some hard things to say of a certain class of North Alabama people. Guinn felt very much hurt over it, and in alluding to it, during the gubernatorial election, said that the first time his "moral turpitude" had ever been questioned. Since he has accepted a place on the Tyrant and Robber ticket and entered into a conspiracy to deliver the farmers, he and his sort have deceived, over to the tender mercies of Force Bill Harrison, his "moral turpitude" will

One of the noblest and most unselfish of Alabama's public men has passed away in the person of Ex-Gov. Watts, of Montgomery. He died suddenly of heart disease at his home in that city last Saturday.

Ex-Mayor McCollister, of Piedmont, is an applicant for appointment as Railroad Commissioner, to fill the place made vacant by the death of Gen. Lawler. He is a good man and thoroughly understands the business of railroading and would make an excellent Commissioner.

Two Radicals for Congress and four for the electoral ticket so far appears as the result of the work of the Birmingham Combine Convention. When the records of all the unknown men on the Congressional and electoral tickets are sifted, no doubt more radicals will be found. It may be depended upon that Bob Moseley and Chris Magee got their share of the bargain.

The South Carolina State Convention, composed largely of Alliance men, nominated Tillman for Governor and endorsed Grover Cleveland in their platform. The Chairman of the Convention made a speech in which he congratulated the delegates upon the fact that the Third party had gained no hold in South Carolina. "People seem to have sense in South Carolina."

When S. S. Boothie, a rank Republican, was put on the electoral ticket for the Third District by the Birmingham fusionists and they met and nominated John B. Ware. Ware is a man who is known as a person who can do an immense business on very limited capital. He has had some astonishing financial experiences in Birmingham. During the boom in Jacksonville some of our people had a taste of his quality. It is said he bought property, but never paid a dollar for it. From all accounts he is not much hand at extending the circulating medium.

Dolphie Longshore tried to pass a bill through the last legislature to divorce a man from an insane wife and give him the power to dispose of her interest in the estate. Longshore cared little for the poor insane woman whom he tried to rob of a protector and property at one and the same time. The legislature spurned his bill with indignation. Now it is in order for some little bench-leg fee of a fellow to pop up and say this is all a lie. But the records of the legislature will show in black and white, that it is true.

Meantime let the procession of purities proceed.

Messrs. N. J. Stephens and Geo. W. Landers attended the appointment of Messrs. Robbins and Williams in Beat Eight and were accorded a division of time. Parties who were present report that they got the worst of the argument too. In view of this courtesy on the part of the Cleveland men, we presume the Weaverites will accord Democratic speakers a division, when their joint discussion is had, the voters have an opportunity to become informed, and we trust that both sides in this canvass will accord division of time to speakers of the opposite parties, so far as Calhoun is concerned. Voters should distrust a party which will allow no reply to its speakers.

It is a significant fact that the Birmingham Conglomerate Convention did not endorse any presidential ticket. This leaves their electors free to vote for either Weaver or Harrison for President. As Senator Pugh points out, if they should vote for Weaver, the election would be thrown into the House of Representatives, which would elect Cleveland. They have said they do not want Cleveland. Consequently they will do anything to prevent his election. The only way to do this is to vote for Harrison in the electoral college.

Everything points to the attempted delivery of the Alliance men of Alabama to the Republican candidate for President. Will they suffer themselves thus duped by their leaders? We shall see.

Mr. Adolphus Longshore, the Congressional nominee of the Republican-Third Party-Jeffersonian combine was a member of the committee in the last Legislature which reported out favorably the bill to protect white men and negroes in the chain gang for getting in debt. He is the gentleman who was so intensely hostile to the railroads that he suppressed in his committee a bill to prevent the railroads from influencing legislators by the presentation of free passes. He is the gentleman who could not vote for a second five thousand dollar appropriation to build a monument to the glorious Confederate dead, because, as he said at Piedmont, he thought a former appropriation of five thousand dollars was enough for them to have. Dolphie is altogether a very fit representative of his party; but his re-

The more we think of it the less we like the idea of a still hunt campaign on the part of the Democracy of Calhoun. Such a campaign carries with it the idea that the party is apologizing for its acts privately and is too timid to defend its record openly.

The principles of the Democratic party are worth defending, openly and above board. No man need be ashamed to advocate those principles or the candidates who are exponents of them, from the house tops. They involve the very essence of true government and cannot be too vehemently pressed upon the attention of the people by able and fearless men, whose devotion to those principles have never flagged, and who have never suffered private interests to interfere with an expression of their views. We have had too much back door politics for the good of the country. Democratic speakers need not abuse men who have been misled by the tools of the Republican party into questioning the honesty and patriotism of the Democratic party, but they should defend their party openly and boldly as it deserves to be defended, regardless of the effect upon that class of men who have been supping it for years. The Democratic party wants no apologies in the South at this time. It needs none. It is the only party that has ever stood by the rights and interests of the Southern people. It is the only party which has the disposition and the power to protect them. It will stamp out the infamous intrigue between the new party and the Republicans to betray the Southern people to their ruin and will cover the conspirators with shame. It does not condone treachery and cannot tolerate cowards. It will submit to no force bill, if imposed by a hundred Congresses. Such a party deserves more than a whispered defence at the hearthstone of the recalcitrant and should not be "logged" for as if it were a candidate for county office.

A blast from the fable of a Morgan is worth a thousand still hunters and their apologetic methods.

A Third Party white man led the negroes in the race riots of Calhoun county, Arkansas. He is another pure specimen of the "pure" party. This is probably the kind of a bullet campaign certain men with Third party proclivities have been talking about in Calhoun county Alabama. The women and children need not become alarmed at the expressions of these fellows among us. They would go into spasms if one should burst a cap at them.

Weaver was rotten-egged at Macon, Georgia, Thursday.

He Knew Weaver in 1884.

From the Prentiss (Miss) Plaindealer.

A reader of The Plaindealer tells in the following what he knows of Gen. Jas. B. Weaver while in command of the Union army at Pulaski, Tenn.:

Editor Prentiss Plaindealer:

"I see in your issue of August 4, an article headed, 'Hard On Weaver.' I want the people to know I was a citizen of Giles county and was personally acquainted with Weaver when he was Commander of the Post at Pulaski. I did not see the order to Abernathy, Newhall, Rodes and others, but I knew them to be men of good character and there is no doubt of the order. He also issued a general order for every man in the county to report with every man, meat and other provisions they had to him and he would take part and leave part. I did not report to him and they came to my house and took all the meat I had, every chicken and all the corn they could carry, leaving me about seven bushels because the wagons would not hold that. Many of my neighbors suffered like treatment and this was distributed to negroes and sorry white men, taken from the hard-working class. How can such a man have the face to ask men he robbed to support him? My father fought at King's Mountain under Cleveland. I guess he was the ancestor of the one running for President on the Democratic ticket, and if all Christian people will join me in praying for him he will be elected. I don't think the God of Heaven and Earth will allow the seat occupied by Washington, Jefferson, Jackson and others disgraced by a robber. I am not done with Weaver. He made the citizens of Giles county unload their cotton at the point of the bayonet and turn it over to him. He, Weaver, took from my son, two bales weighing over 500 pounds each and worth 70 cents per pound, making more than $700. Can a just God ever forgive such a man? I will say to the Third party, they ought to put Frank James on with Weaver, for he is as good as Weaver, and Weaver and James would represent a good robber's ticket. I am not half done with Weaver's meanness, but my paper is out. I was born 1837 and am near 80 years of age; have been a Primitive Baptist preacher for more than fifty years and can prove all I say and don't go behind the bush. My name is A. W. Walker.

P. S.—If any Third party man who claims to be honest, can take Weaver, it is only to show what a strong stomach he has.

A. W. W.

Comment on the above letter is unnecessary. Mr. Walker is a reliable citizen and Christian gentleman and the facts are plain and undeniable.

WAR IN ARKANSAS.

Murderous Uprising of Negroes in Calhoun County.

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 19.—Advices have just been received here from Calhoun county that there is a general uprising of negroes in Compagnelle township. The negroes are dissatisfied with the new election law, and have threatened to annihilate every white man, woman and child in the township. Captain James, an old and respected citizen, went to a meeting of the blacks Saturday and tried to pacify them. A general fight ensued. Captain James was shot in the leg, four negroes were killed and several more wounded. Further trouble is looked for, as the blacks are desperate and are led by bad men.

The Stevens wing of the Republican party have put out a full Harrison electoral ticket, and nominated candidates for Congress in every district. Three of the Congressional nominees are negroes.

KOLB AND MAGEE.

PROOF OF THEIR BARGAIN FROM A LEADING REPUBLICAN PAPER.

The Whole Thing Openly Avowed.—The Chicago Tribune's Staff Correspondent Makes no Bones About the Deal.—All for Harrison's Benefit.

The following is an extract from The Chicago Tribune's special telegram from Birmingham sent out last Wednesday night before the Kolb anti-Cleveland Convention. The Tribune had a staff representative on the ground in the person of Mr. McPherson, a son of Hon. Edward McPherson, Clerk of the last Republican House. The matter is valuable as corroborative evidence as to the exact nature of the deal made by Kolb and Magee at Birmingham, and is valuable because it is from one of the chief Republican papers in the country:

The occasion is made the more noteworthy by the presence in the city of Chris Magee of the Republican National Committee. He visits Alabama at this time to effect if possible the fusion between the Kolbites and the Republicans.

Never did diplomat have a more delicate and perplexing task. The Moseley faction has about all the Federal patronage in the State worth looking after. The Stevens crowd is on the outside, go to speak. Mr. Magee, it will be remembered, landed quite a batch of delegates from Pennsylvania to the Minneapolis Convention for President Harrison. He has now to deal with the President's appointees, and he finds them a stubborn lot of men. Being in the saddle themselves Magee will be compelled to use a vast deal of strategy to get them to yield a point to the Stevens folks. Magee has been here a day or two, but up to this time has not achieved what might be termed a "blooming success." Mr. Magee will do well enough in the Northeast and "wooly West," but he has a hard task before him here.

One Fusion Virtually Made.

The Moseley faction has virtually closed a fusion with the Kolbites on this basis: The Kolb party is to choose six out of eleven presidential electors and the Moseley people the remainder. The Kolbites are to have the selection of candidates for Congress in the nine districts of the State. Moseley and his friends are to be furnished with lists of electors and Congressional candidates and are to have the right to approve or reject. This much has been agreed on in an informal way. Capt. Kolb will to-night appoint a committee of five to meet a similar committee from the Kolb People's party Convention which meets to-morrow.

The basis of the trade has been agreed on and will doubtless be carried into effect.

Behind it all is an understanding to this effect: If the fusion ticket carries Alabama the six Kolb votes are to be kept away from Cleveland. Should there be any show of throwing the election into the House the Republicans will, if possible, see that the six would vote for Harrison in preference to Cleveland. They can get on record for Weaver if the Democrats suffer to that extent.

Magee's mission here is to see to the complexion of the electors. He wants to be in the wool, out-and-out anti-Cleveland men. The Kolb party is by all odds stronger than the People's Alliance, which has from 10,000 to 15,000 votes in Alabama. Kolb wants State control. He desires above all things to make his power felt in November for the effect it will have in the Legislature, when Kolb will contest Jones' right to the Governorship.

HAS NO LOVE FOR WEAVER.

He cares nothing for Weaver, but needs the Alliance vote to get him through by the terms of the agreement above referred to. The People's party will get the Congressional nominees and six of their brethren as electors. Kolb will boss the job and his chances of getting the Governorship eventually will be materially enhanced. Such is the arrangement on the stocks now. It has an extremely good chance of being ratified to-morrow or next day.

The anti-Moseley people are not in the scheme at all. All efforts to reconcile the factions have up to this time been futile and unavailing. The anti-Moseley party proposed a new State Central Committee made of the old one consolidated and divided by two. This the Moseley men wouldn't consent to, because there are five or six Moseley men on their Committee. On a fusion the Moseley men would be found in the minority. They rejected the proposition and substituted therefore a peace offering which gave the Moseley end of it a majority of four on the new committee, whereupon the other side kicked over the traces. Then Moseley's friends with all haste and speed proceeded to lay the foundation of doing business with Capt. Kolb, thus taking the initial and bagging all the glory.

The anti-Moseley people have not made any agreement with the Kolbites and are to all appearances out in the cold; cold water. The chances of successful fusion election-day would be bettered if the Stevens or anti-Moseley party was in line. It is on the outs now and may get left altogether. Moseley says his party represents 95 per cent of all that is Republican in Alabama. Stevens declares not 10 per cent of the Republicans in the State are with Moseley. The negotiations between Moseley and Kolb will probably be consummated in an agreement to-morrow.

WEAVER'S BRUTAL CRUELTY.

Testimony of One who Witnessed it in Tennessee.

TALLAPOOSA, GA., Aug. 23.

Atlanta Journal.

I see in your issue of Saturday, the 20th instant an extract from a letter written by an old citizen of Pulaski, Tenn., also a copy of a clipping from the Giles County Democrat, charging Gen. Weaver, the people's party candidate for president, with beastly cruelty towards the citizens of Pulaski and Giles County while in command of the Union Army at that place in 1864:

I can fully substantiate a number of charges contained therein, and could add many others of like character, all from my own recollection. Although quite young at the time such a state of terror as we were kept in by this brute in human form made an indelible impression upon my mind.

My father, Dr. Perkins was living in Pulaski at this time. Our house, my grandmother's (Mrs. Dr. Ordway, now of Nashville), and Major Jones, a relative of ours, were used as officers' quarters. We were all subject to many insults. Major Jones family were ordered out of their house at about 12 o'clock on a bitter cold night in December. They were not allowed time to dress. Mrs. Jones had to wrap her sick child in bed clothing and carry it to a neighbor's house. Many acts of barbarous cruelty committed on my relatives and friends are fresh in memory. Men of the highest standing, young and old, were thrown into prison, kept there for months, and some shot down like dogs with never a charge entered against them. Ladies were insulted on the streets—it was indeed a reign of terror. Such acts of crime and vandalism I have never read of in a civilized county. All of this was done by the order, or with the consent, of General Weaver.

Gen. Weaver is met with hot water all through the South. He took advantage of a 20 minutes stop at Amory, Mississippi, on Monday, to speak to a crowd assembled on the platform.

When he finished, a lady on the train raised her window and said: "Gentlemen, this man General Weaver, is the man who, during the war, robbed every body in the Southern States who fell in his line of march. I know this to be so, for he stole two pounds of butter from me. Do not listen to him but go and vote the Democratic ticket straight."

Her words were greeted with great cheering and Gen. Weaver drew in his head and had no more to say. Families in Huntsville were also taxed and suffered under his tyranny. One lady informed us that though she had six children to care for and no support, she was forced to pay a tax for the indigent poor or be turned out of her home the next day, and the lady had to sell a dress from her meagre wardrobe to pay it.

And this is the rascal who dares ask for a Southern vote. Shame on the man who casts a single ballot for him!—Huntsville Democrat.

DOCTOR BILLS.

I have put my notes and accounts in the hands of Constable W. H. Clark, for collection. I am compelled to do this as I am going to leave December 1st and have not the time to hunt up those owing me.

Settlements must be made! Any arrangement Mr. Clark may make will be satisfactory to me.

C. H. MONTGOMERY, M. D.

The recently elected United States Senator of Georgia, General John B. Gordon, says:

Mr. A. K. Hawkes—Dear Sir: The pantoscopic glasses you furnished me some time since give excellent satisfaction. I have tested them by use, and must say they are unequalled in clearness and brilliancy by any that I have ever worn.

Respectfully,
JOHN B. GORDON,
Ex-Governor of State of Georgia.

The supporters of Weaver excuse his expressions of hate of Southern people, on the ground that they were made away back during or directly after the war. Let us see about this.

At a Fourth of July celebration at Marshalltown, Ia., in 1885, soon after Mr. Cleveland's inauguration and the elevation of Senators Lamar and Garland to cabinet positions, General Weaver made another characteristic speech, and said among other unreasonable and fanatical things:

"The free institutions of this country are again menaced and the union soldiers of the republic insulted by the elevation of confederate leaders to the highest places in the land. The refinements of the government at Washington have been given over to the rebellious south, and if this state of things is permitted to go on for another four years, you will see the rebels, who ought really to have been hung or shot, drawing pensions from the government they tried so hard to break up and destroy."

Two Necessities to the Front.

Sentiment don't sell clothes. It's price and quality. The LEAST of the FORMER for the MOST of the LATTER and things boom. It's no wonder we're doing the biggest trade in CLOTHING and FURNISHING GOODS. It's a characteristic of humanity to appreciate fine things, and where they are "surprise" you'll find the people.

The latest Fashion Plates the suits with bound and stitched edges, plain or silk facings. You read these things—naturally you look for them when you "set out" to buy a suit. You'll FIND 'EM HERE—all of them, in cheviots, plain black and light shades, tweeds, cassimeres and worsteds, cut in the scale of lengths that are proper. Plain weaves and wide wales. The linings and trimmings are as carefully selected and put in place as the outside finishings. We're not ashamed to have you look our suits through and through. We're conscious they're all right.

Straight as a thread through the eye of a needle we have entered into every phase of Suit Fashion. When you make a change with US this Spring it will be for the better. We have "slashed" the price until only a tissue of profits covers the cost. Our line of cheapness has been drawn at $10.00 worth weighs light below that price. Up to $35.00 quality grows with every dollar. THERE is the highest perfection. Judge us as you find us. The sacks and three and four button cutaway frocks, made up in "wood brown," cheviots, black thibets, fancy cassimeres, clay's worsteds, etrick, tweeds, english homespuns, &c. Give us a variety that no three houses can compare and equal. Don't fear of the fit that is perfect beyond improvement. Our aim has been to give you the biggest money's worth you have ever had—and we have succeeded. Success piles upon success.
